Woods in Your Backyard

This one-day workshop is for those landowners who have a small section of woods out back that they want to learn more about. Which trees and shrubs are 'good' and what are they good for! Want to attract wildlife, improve the health of the trees, deal with invasive species - this workshop is for you!

We will spend part of the day inside learning some of the basics and the tools you can use. Then we take that knowledge outside to put it to good use.
